MAPOD4D User License version 0.1

1. Premises
This license defines the rights granted by the author or by the licensee in reference to the work of authorship called MAPOD4D version 1.X.X.X, formed by the following elements : MAPOD4D core v1 (also called MAPOD4D c1), MAPOD4D content (dedicated development of the metaverse for a specific topic or subject), MAPOD4D hardware (set of original design models, software and data digitalization systems), MAPOD4D storage (memorizes and elaborates high resolution data).

The Licensee agrees to observe and apply any conditions defined within this license, including points 9, 10, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21. Violation of this license automatically invalidates all rights granted to the Licensee.

2. Definitions

Copyright : the legal institution which aims to protect the results of intellectual activity of creative nature (new and original works), by recognizing moral and patrimonial/economical rights to the original author of the work. Copyright applies to visual arts, architecture, theater, cinematography, computer programs and databases.

Work : the work of authorship subject to copyright and protected in Italy by law 633/41, whose authorship and copyright are held by the author, released under the terms and conditions of this License, called "MAPOD4D version 1.X.X.X" and also called "platform" and "framework".

Platform : the work of authorship subject to copyright and protected in Italy by law 633/41 , whose authorship and copyright are held by the author, released under the terms and conditions of this License, called "MAPOD4D version 1.X.X.X" and also called "work" and "framework".

Framework: the instrument usable to create a metaverse MAPOD4D, subject to copyright and protected in Italy by law 633/41, whose authorship and copyright are held by the author, released under the terms and conditions of this License, called "MAPOD4D version 1.X.X.X" and also called "work" and "platform".

Communication : the spread, by a mean of diffusion, that allows the work to be sent to the public or made available to the public so that everyone can independently have access to it, even if the recipient is a single subject.

Distribution : the act of placing on the market, or in circulation, or of making available to the public, by any means or support and for any reason, the work or copies of it, even if the recipient is a single subject.

Source Code : the form of the work preferred for making modifications.

Object code : any non-source form of a work.

Author of the original work : the creator of the original work of authorship, first copyright owner, author as to Italian law 633/41, who has the non-transferable paternity right of the original work and who can dispose of the pertinent economic exploitation rights and related rights.

Author of modifications to the original work : the creator of modifications to the original Work of authorship, who has the non-transferable paternity right of the modification created. Being the creation a modification of an existing work, the author of the modification will not hold economic exploitation rights and related rights on the resulting work, based on or derivation of the original work.
Licensor : the copyright owner, or the entity authorized by the copyright owner, that is granting the License. The author of the original work is the first licensor of the original work.

Licensee : an individual or Legal Entity exercising permissions granted by this License. If you receive the work covered by this license, you are the licensee.

Modification : the modification of the work which results in a work derived from the original or based on the original.

Derivative Works : any work, whether in Source or Object form, that is based on or derived from the Original Work.

Technological protection measures : all technologies, devices or components, intended to prevent or limit the exercise of the rights included in this license.

Reproduction: the creation of copies (direct or indirect, temporary or permanent, partial or total) of the Work, in any way or form.

3. Time limit
All rights granted by this License are perpetual and irrevocable provided that the conditions are respected.

4. Rights granted to the licensee in private use
You, as licensee, are granted a royalty-free, non-exclusive license to use the work in private, in source code form or in any non-source form.

5. Rights granted to the licensee in non-private use
You, as licensee, are granted a royalty-free, non-exclusive license to use the work in public and to let third parties use it (without the creation, communication or distribution of copies), provided that you :

- inform the public or the third parties of the content of the "note on the authorship of the work and copyright"
- do not cancel or modify the notes regarding the Disclaimer of Warranty and the Limitation of Liability
- let the public and the third parties access this license when they use or see you using the work

6. Distribution of Identical Copies in source code form.
You, as licensee, may communicate or distribute identical copies of the original work's source code as you receive it, in any medium, provided that you :

- do not charge any price or cost for each copy that you convey, you are not allowed to ask for any kind of payment
- make sure that every copy is accompanied by the "note on the authorship of the work and copyright"
- keep intact all notices concerning the absence of any warranty and the limitation of liability
- give all recipients a copy of this License
- release the entire work, as a whole, under this License to anyone who comes into possession of a copy of it, in any form. This License will therefore apply to the work as a whole, to all of its parts, regardless of how they are packaged. This License denies permission to license the work in any other way. The recipient of the work, assuming the role of Licensee, will be subject to the terms and conditions of this license.

7. Distribution of Identical Copies in non-source form.
You, as licensee, may communicate or distribute identical copies of the original work in any non-source form as you receive it, in any medium, provided that :

- you may charge any price or no price for each copy that you convey, as refund for the costs you bare
- there's no obligation to distribute the source code together with the application in non-source form, even if you received both
- every copy is accompanied by the "note on the authorship of the work and copyright"
- you keep intact all notices concerning the absence of any warranty and the limitation of liability
- you give all recipients a copy of this License
- you distribute the work under this License to anyone who comes into possession of a copy of it, in any form. This License will therefore apply to the work as a whole, to all of its parts, regardless of how they are packaged. This License denies permission to license the work in any other way. The recipient of the work, assuming the role of Licensee, will be subject to the terms and conditions of this license.

8. Right to modify the original source code

You, as licensee, are authorized to modify the original source code of the work, obtaining a derivative work or a work based on the original.

9. Distribution of the modified source code

You, as licensee, may communicate or distribute modified copies of the source code of the original work in any medium, to the public, to third parties or to a single receiver, provided that you :

- do not charge any price or cost, you are not allowed to ask for any kind of payment for the distribution or communication of the modified work in source form
- give to any receiver written information to clarify that the original work has been modified, specifying the date and the author of the modification
- make sure that every copy is accompanied by the "note on the authorship of the work and copyright" concerning the original work
- keep intact all notices concerning the absence of any warranty and the limitation of liability
- give all recipients a copy of this License
- release the modified source code under this license and give it to anyone who asks for it.
- This license will apply to the modified source code, distributed to the public or given to a single receiver, and to the entire work, as a whole, in any form, including all of its parts, regardless of how they are packaged. This License denies permission to license the work in any other way. The recipient of the work, assuming the role of Licensee, will be subject to the terms and conditions of this license.

10. Distribution of the modified work in non-source form

You, as licensee, may communicate or distribute modified copies of the work (obtained modifying the source code of the original work) in any non-source form, in any medium, to the public, to third parties or to a single receiver, provided that you :

- do not charge any price or cost, you are not allowed to ask for any kind of payment for the distribution or communication of the modified work in non-source form
- give to any receiver the modified source code together with the modified work in non-source form, applying the provisions of point 9
- do not charge any price or cost for the distribution or communication of the modified source code, you are not allowed to ask for any kind of payment
- make the modified work in non-source form and the modified source code available at no cost for everyone who ask for it
- give to any receiver written information to clarify that the original work has been modified, specifying the date and the author of the modification
- make sure that every copy is accompanied by the "note on the authorship of the work and copyright" concerning the original work
- keep intact all notices concerning the absence of any warranty and the limitation of liability
- give all recipients a copy of this License
- release the modified work (in non-source form) under this license.
- This license will apply to the modified work, distributed to the public or given to a single receiver in non-source form, and to the entire work, as a whole, in any form, including all of its parts, regardless of how they are packaged. This License denies permission to license the work in any other way. The recipient of the work, assuming the role of Licensee, will be subject to the terms and conditions of this license.

11. Portions of Code or Third Party Libraries

If the work includes libraries or portions of third-party code, these elements will be subject to their own license, which the Licensee undertakes to verify before distributing or communicating such elements separately from the work or included in a modified work. The Licensee has the responsibility to be compliant with these licenses.

12. Digital content displayed within the application or through it

The digital contents displayed within the application or that the work shows, or that can be accessed through the work, are provided by the respective copyright holders for the sole purpose of being viewed within the work or through it. It is not allowed to extract them and / or make a different use of them.

13. Guidelines for the correct use of the work
The Licensee who uses the work, in any form, to develop works derived from or based on the original work or who uses the original work and add contents, have the obligation to respect the guidelines in the version in force at the time the work is used. The Guidelines are published at https://github.com/mapod4d/docs/blob/master/mapod4d_guidelines_lineeguida.pdf
In any case :
- the use of NFT within each work related to MAPOD4D (MAPOD4D, derivative works or works based on it) is not allowed
- It is not allowed to use the work (MAPOD4D, derivative or works based on it, parts of it) for the creation of NFT.
- It is not allowed to make the work (MAPOD4D, derivative works or works based on it, parts of it) appear in NFT.

14. Other rights
Any right not specifically expressed in this license is not granted to the licensee.

15. Aggregates
The distribution of the work covered by this License together with other separate and independent works, which are not by nature extensions of the covered work, and which are not combined with it to form another larger program, within or on the same medium of long-term storage or distribution is simply called "aggregate" if the collection and its license terms are not used to limit the access or rights of users of the collection beyond what each individual program permits. The inclusion of the work covered by this License in an aggregate does not imply the application of this License to the other parts of the aggregate or the application of licenses other than this one to the work itself. The Licensee must make the name of the work clear to the recipients of the aggregate (or the medium containing it) and show a note clarifying that, in the event of commercialization, a payment may be requested only to cover the costs incurred and never for the distributed work.

16. Disclaimer of Warranty
The Work is provided on an "AS IS" basis, without warranties or conditions of any kind, either express or implied, concerning every feature of the work, its functionalities, or fitness for a particular purpose. You, as licensee, assume the entire risk as to the quality and performance of the work. Should the work prove defective, you as licensee assume the cost of all necessary servicing, repair or correction, modification or adaptation.

17. Limitation of Liability
Unless required by applicable law, the author of the original work, the author of a modification of the work, the subject which distributes the original or the modified work in any form, will never be liable to the licensee or third parties for damages, including any damages arising out of the use or inability to use the work, including but not limited to loss of data, data corruption, economic losses, loss of earnings, sustained by the Licensee or by third parties.

18. Technological protection measures
The licensee is not allowed to apply any technological protection measure to the work in any form.

19. Termination
The rights granted under this License will terminate automatically if You, as licensee, fail to comply with any of its terms. In this case the license will be considered terminated.

20. Applicable law and conflicts with local legislation
On Italian territory, this license is subject to Italian legislation.
Outside Italy, if it is impossible for You, as licensee, to comply with any of the terms of this License with respect to the covered work due to statute, judicial order, law or regulation, then You must comply with the terms of this License to the maximum extent possible and describe the limitations specifying the local law involved.
If the disclaimer of warranty and limitation of liability provided above cannot be given local legal effect according to their terms, it is mandatory to apply the local law that most closely approximates an absolute waiver of all civil liability for the author of the original work, the authors of modifications and the subjects communicating or distributing the work, in connection with the covered work.

21. Litigation

Outside Italy, any litigation relating to this License may be brought only in the courts of a jurisdiction where the defendant maintains its principal place of business or domicile and such litigation shall be governed by laws of that jurisdiction, without reference to its conflict-of-law provisions. If the author of the original work is involved, the litigation may brought only in the court of the jurisdiction where he has its domicile.
